The Distinguished Nigerian Physicians of Tomorrow

'...changing brain drain into brain gain'

P.O. Box 110381, Durham, NC 27709

www.dnpt.org

- Vibrant Discussion Board
- Fundraisers: T-shirts, Lapel Pins
- Letters for Grants: CGIU and McArthur Foundation
- Medical Supply Drive in Collaboration with Children of Abraham
- LASUTH is one of the recipients of the medical supplies
- Fashion Show and Comedy Extravaganza "Towards a Healthier Nigeria" during ANPA conference in July 2010 to raise funds
- Call for Abstract submission already on the website
- DNPT formerly recognized by ANPA as the student arm of the organization
- Still working on student exchange programs
- Possible scholarship from ANPA

Questions and Answer Session:

- Students wanted more information about DNPT? The goals and objectives were reiterated including our mission and future plans
- What do we want from LASUCOM? Lanre and I discussed active participation. The presence of 1 or more ambassadors at LASUCOM so that members can stay up to date on our activities
- What is the brain drain? Discussion about our motto "changing brain drain into brain gain"
- Deji (LASUMSA president) wanted to find out about setting up an exchange program and is interested in making that happen with DNPT and ANPA's support

Lapel Pins were sold during the meeting with the students and pictures were taken. Three of the students signed up to be ambassadors for LASUCOM and their information will be sent to Simidele Akinsiku

Tour of LASUTH

- Deji, took us on a tour of almost the entire school of medicine, the different laboratories, the dormitories, Ayinke house and clinics.
- We met with the CMD of LASUTH, Dr. Femi Olugbile, who welcomed us very warmly and took pictures with us. He also praised us on the medical supply drive and provided his support to help with the successful delivery of the equipment to LASUTH
